PROFILE

Twelve years designing digital products used by millions of people across 14 countries. My work spans a behavioural wellness app with 1M+ users, an enterprise AI suite serving 35,000+ daily users, a fintech payments ecosystem across mobile, web and field operations, and a national brand mark created with no brief. I design end to end, from research and strategy to shipped component libraries and production-ready interfaces, working at the intersection of human judgement and AI tooling. Claude, Cursor, Figma Make and v0 help me explore many directions at once; twelve years of craft decides which one ships.
